

A stylized, layered illustration of London. The top half features a sunset sky with horizontal bands of orange, red, and purple. In the center, the dark silhouette of Big Ben stands prominently. To its right, a large building with two chimneys is visible. The River Thames flows through the middle, with a bridge crossing it. A small boat with a white sail is on the water. The bottom half of the image is a dark blue background with the author's name and title in white.
